

April 25, 2008

TO: FCC

RE: Proceeding 04-233

Dear Sir or Madam:

I would like to express my concern over the possibility that my favorite radio station may be adversely impacted by the enactment of Proceeding 04-233. My family enjoys listening to the positive message of KLOVE radio. The songs are uplifting and the music is family friendly. It would be a sad loss to not be able to hear this type of message on public radio.

For so many years, family conscience people have been watched as television, movies and radio have bombarded us with ever increasing filthy language, images and messages. We are always told that all we have to do is turn the channel or the television off if we are offended by the message.

Christian radio programs are a positive contrast to the messages being sent from the aforementioned media. If freedom of speech is guaranteed by our constitution, it must surely be guaranteed to Christians as well. They have a right to broadcast their message. We all have the power to turn off the message if we are not interested in it.

I do not want an "advisory panel" making decisions about what my radio station can and can not say, nor do I want my station to be forced to provide "equal time" to opposing viewpoints. If I want to hear an opposing viewpoint, I will do my own research.

Thank you for taking time to solicit public comments on this proceeding. You may contact me at the address listed on my cover sheet if you would like further comments.

Sincerely,

Stacey G. Brooks